

Metal, glass will meet at Corning Museum event

CORNING, N.Y. – Carder Steuben glass collectors and admirers will join with craftsmen and collectors of decorative metal art for a symposium Sept. 13-15 at the Corning Museum of Glass, presented by the Carder Steuben Club. The event will showcase the artistry achieved by early 20th century metal craftsmen who combined their pieces with Carder Steuben glass.

Shared Desires: A Unity of Glass and Metal will explore the artistry and history of pieces created by Devillbis perfumes, Roycroft copper craftsmen, Crest Lamps, FrankArt, Art Lamp, Oscar Bach and others.

Well-known and respected collector and dealer Marsha Crafts will make a presentation on DeVillbis perfumes. Webmaster of www.roycroftcopper.com, David Kornacki, and Roycroft collector and former co-curator of the Elbert Hubbard Museum, Doug McFarland, will present Roycroft Copper: Origin, Evolution and Collaboration.

Other presentations by the Rakow Library of the Corning Museum of Glass, Jim Barlow and Mark Buffa on Steuben glass bodies for lamps, and examples of metal and Steuben glass from the collection of Bill Mehlenbacher are also scheduled.

The cost to attend the symposium will be $172.50 for Carder Steuben Club members and $197.50 for non-members.

Contact: (812) 423-3183,
www.cardersteubenclub.com

of Griesbach conservation of

acing system
ing. As part of
on treatment,
d, cracks and
were repaired
system was ole springs to ecture. In addie cleaned and sound and servators will
ng from past
nd will fill in age with new

