-  In 2004 the Museum of Glass in Tacoma, WA hosted the "Summer Hot Shop Artists Series" that ran from May 14 through September 7, featuring seasonal residencies by glass artists in the Museum's Hot Shop. During the residencies the Museum's web site featured a special section devoted to the Summer Hot Shop Artists Series including biographies, images and streaming video of the artists in the Hot Shop. Susan Warner, Director of Education for the Museum, said in a April 4, 2005 conversation with TFAO that the streaming video feature will again be offered during the residencies starting May 31, 2005.
-  Nova Southeastern University partnered with the WGBH Forum Network for Dale Chihuly's Glass Garden by Nora Quinlan, researcher, Alvin Sherman Library, NSU. (3 minutes) The NSU Glass Garden by Dale Chihuly in the atrium of the Alvin Sherman Library on the Nova Southeastern University campus is a rare opportunity for the public to view and enjoy a beautiful one-of-a-kind glass sculpture for free. Watch as this permanent exhibit is installed and learn a bit about Chihuly's creative process. [April 27, 2007]
